

/// Sir Christopher Wren Building Renovations

Project Scope:

The Sir Christopher Wren building is the oldest classroom building in the United States in continuous use as well as the oldest restored public building in Williamsburg. It was constructed between 1695 and 1699. The historic restoration of the building included installing completely new state of the art HVAC, electrical, fire alarm, plumbing and sprinkler systems throughout the building while preserving and restoring the architectural elements of the building.

Education

Location:

Williamsburg, Virginia

Owner Contact:

Louise Kale
College of William & Mary
P.O. Box 8795
Williamsburg, VA 23187
757.221.1540

Architect Contact:

Baird Smith, AIA, FAPT
Quinn-Evans Architects
1214 28th Street NW
Washington, DC 20007
202.298.6700

National Register #: 140088

Completion Date: March 2001

Contract Amount: $2,620,745.00